

BIAM Model School & College, Dhaka is a distinguished educational institution. Alongside imparting education, this institution runs many education related clubs. ICT club is one of them. The central objective of ICT club is to enhance student's technology based knowledge using cognitive skills of science and technology. The members of this club are skilled and bold enough to run all activities of the club. The members of this club participate in ICT competitions in different schools and colleges and put a mark of success in their respective fields.

